Historical Society Held 18th Annual Meeting Sept. 1

The 18th annual meeting of the Bethel Historical Society was held Thursday evening, Sept. 1, in the meeting room of the Dr. Moses Mason House. A 6:30 pot luck supper preceded the annual meeting, ably handled by the Special Projects Committee headed by Carolyn Brooks. The centerpiece and table flowers were again furnished by Barbara Herrick Brown who also has faithfully furnished flowers for the museum since it opened in 1974.

During the business meeting Treasurer Margaret Joy Tibbets reported the Society to be in good financial health and that the endowment responding to the good news of the stock market had appreciated at a steady rate since last annual meeting. All those who had made Sudbury Canada Days such a success were thanked for their efforts on the Society's behalf.

A nominating committee consisting of Helen Morton for the Trustees, and Barbara Kuzik and Betty Perkins for the general membership reported the following slate for 1983-84: President, Donald G. Bennett; Vice President, Alden T. Kennett; Secretary, Mary C. Keniston; Treasurer, Margaret J. Tibbets; Trustees for three years, Persis Post and Ruth Wright. The report was accepted by all members present.

Tributes were paid to retiring trustees Edith Eddy and Helen Morton. Mrs. Eddy, a former secretary of the Society, is a life member and has served the Society as a guide in the museum and as a member of the museum committee. Mrs. Morton has served as the head of the program com-

BOY SCOUTS INFORMATION/ REGISTRATION NIGHT SEPT. 14

Any area boys who are at least 11 years old or older, or have completed the 5th grade and are 10 1/2 years old are at this time able to join the Boy Scouts of America.

All boys and or parents are invited to attend an informational meeting, Wednesday, Sept. 14, at 7 p. m. at the Bethel Fire Station.

On hand will be several of the scouts, Committee members and the Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster, to help answer any question and register new boys. The 1983 fee will be $2.50 and if the new scout wants to subscribe to Boys Life, the annual cost of this magazine is $5.

For information regarding the Scouts, call Scoutmaster Ray Harrington, 824-2698, or Committee Chairman, Hugh Chapman, 836-2887.

The artifact of the month was a surveyor's compass with attached tag which indicates that the compass was used in the 1770's in running lines in what is today Haver and Bethel. This was the gift of Louis Thibodeau of Rumford and Rodney Howe of Bethel.

Health Center Announces Appointment of Part Time, Temporary Physician

The Board of Trustees and Staff of the Bethel Area Health Center are pleased to announce the appointment of Dr. Paul Potvin as a part time, temporary physician to help meet the health needs of the Center's clients.

While Dr. Potvin serves in a temporary capacity, the recruitment committee of the Northern Oxford Health and Service Council continues its search for a full time family practitioner.

Dr. Potvin completed a three year residency in family practice in July 1983 at the Eastern Maine Medical Center in Bangor. He received a Bachelor of Science degree from Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., and completed his medical education at the University of Massachusetts Medical School in Worcester, Mass.

The addition of Dr. Potvin to the present health care team will enable the Center to expand its hours and increase its capability of caring for those people who are in need. In addition, the Center staff hope to minimize scheduling and waiting time problems that have developed as the Center has expanded its services and client population.

Center staff, including Dr. Potvin, will attempt to be sensitive to any problems associated with temporary appointment of a physician to a health care facility. Patients of the Center with on-going chronic illnesses as well as new patients with potentially serious, on-going health problems will continue to be cared for by permanent staff. Built-in systems to communicate with one another both through staff meetings and record keeping will receive careful attention by Center staff to assure that clients receive the finest on-going health care.

Dr. Potvin will be at the Center on Mondays and Tuesdays starting Sept. 12. He is looking forward to the opportunity of working in a volunteer-directed, community health center and serving the health needs of a rural area.

RETIREES — Earlon "Bud" Paine, who retired as Bethel Postmaster on Friday, Sept. 2, Mr. Paine was a temporary clerk at the Bethel Post Office from 1946 to 1951 when he became a regular clerk. Upon the retirement of Miss Ida Packard on March 30, 1963, he was named acting Postmaster, receiving the appointment as Postmaster later that year. Jeff Desjardins of Mexico is currently Officer-in-Charge at the Bethel Post Office.

FROM THE bethel town office

Meeting in the Town Office Meeting Room on Tuesday evening, Sept. 6, the Board of Selectmen acted on a varied agenda.

The John P. Cullinan Co. of South Paris was chosen as low bidder to supply the Town's fuel oil and gasoline needs for 1983-84. The Board executed a quit claim deed for an undischarged tax lien from 1932 on the Harry A. Lyon property on Grover Hill Road. Also, a permit for the Mudgett-Allen Post of the American Legion to operate a game of chance (beano) was renewed.

On highway and road matters, the Board authorized the Manager to communicate by open letter M.D.O.T.'s approval of Intervale Road petitioners' request to lower to 35 m.p.h. the speed limit between Rt. 26 and C.M.P. pole #40 [near Rodney Howe's (former Stanley property)] and to authorize the posting of signs. After discussing recent events on Grover Hill Road, the Board voted to amend the Town's Traffic Ordinance and establish a no parking area on the northwestern side of Grover Hill Road beginning at a point 3000 feet from the Lover's Lane intersection, for a distance of 6000 feet in a westerly direction. The highway department will post

Greenwood City — Andover

— Mrs. Collis Morgan, Corres. —

This is one of the times of year when anyone who is able can't stay indoors. It's a time to walk along a country road, along the edge of the forest or across an open field.

The gentians have returned, both fringed and closed. Their colors are never overrated. Bouncing Bet still blooms but looks foreboding.

I climbed the hill to look over the valley one day. My trail ran a thin sun-flecked line. I heard the soft sigh of the wind and enjoyed the green of the forest. At this place I was reminded of the times when I was young I'd go outside alone when the moon was full, to stand, silent and motionless, near a group of trees. There I'd gaze at the green foliage silvered by the moon beams. A sense of mystery would engulf me and then the sense of delight changed to fear. This increased until I could stay no longer, so I'd escape to the security indoors where there were lights for company and to recover the reality of it all. But other moonlight nights found me there again.

As I stood today, there was the hum of a plane which left a misty line of silver overhead across the blue of the sky-bowl.

At the feet of a scraggy, yellow birch I sat to note what transpired around me. Close by something moved. I heard the crackle of a twig and almost beside me sat a squirrel. Our eyes met. He shook himself, puffed his chest, and disappeared with lightning speed.

I came to a place where man had in years past cut most of the trees but the kind hand of Nature had hidden its trace. Great rotting logs covered with mosses, ferns, and blackberry bushes were there. The place had changed from great trees to little berries.

I descended a steeper hill, and approached the hemlock grove, passing down through maple arches, pausing to observe the antics of a trio of squirrels, a solitude for them, as they ran and snickered, and chattered and frisked at my presence. The damp earth was springy underfoot, as I strolled along, now at the edge of the forest. As I approached home my attention was arrested on a couple of hummingbirds, the ruby throated. One took shelter among the red salvia blossoms while the other squeaked a warning that the flowers were his. He dived down, as if to dislodge the other. Seeing me he dropped like a feather and in a moment both were gone.

Out on the pond a heron, gulping some luckless frog, lifted his ungainly bulk into the air; mighty wings flailing and went from sight.

What a nice walk! So many things, far too abundant for separate notice. Neither eye nor ear, nor inward, nor outward sense was equal to it all. Each may select one thing special to enjoy but can take but a small portion of the abundant beauty.

Evening draw on, the sunset glow embraced half the sky in its

By Z. J. DiArenzo
How could I have forgotten just what it would be like. To be on a lonely country road. A million stars are blinking in the sky of mid-night blue. They seem so near that one could reach out and pluck down one—or two. In the city and the suburbs there are many star-filled nights. But stars seem very far away when dimmed by man-made lights.

How could I not remember? It's such an awesome sight. To be in Maine, on a country road. On a starlit August night!

For 12 consecutive years the families along the pond have gathered at Biki Beach on the Labor Day week end. Some one named us "The Greenwood City Yacht Club". Many got together and put up the colored lights and banners to get ready for the feast, plus an evening of fun. John Belts instigated its beginning and did the planning. He also was the chief cook. Vernon and Miriam Inman opened their cottage each year and welcomed us at the beach. Max Pulsifer furnished music on the callopie. Everybody brought something for the feed. There was always swimming if it seemed warm enough. A bonfire and a few fireworks marked the evening darkness.

Saturday, Sept. 3, was the last and Corey spent the long week end with relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Emerson and Forrest spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Emerson Sr.

Ernest Farrar of Rufford was the guest speaker at the First Congregational Church on Sunday, Sept. 4. Sunday School begins Sunday Sept. 11. Greeters on Sept. 11 will be Blanche and Sharon Fitzherbert and Norma Gibbs.

There were quite a few yard sales in town over the week end. Mrs. Sylvia Witham of Bath has returned home after spending the week with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Onville Meisner.

Mrs. Lettie Akers of Weston, Mass., has returned home after spending sometime at the "Log Cabin" in East Andover. Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Patricia Marston on the loss of her brother, James Green.

Charles Marston Sr. is a patient at Rufford Community Hospital.

At a meeting of the Snow Valley Snow Goers, Inc. on Aug. 29, it was decided to have a fried clam dinner and a flea market. This will take place at the Andover Town Hall on Sept. 25, and there will be no charge for tables for the flea market. Participants for the flea market are urged to bring their own small tables as the larger ones will be needed for the dinner. For more information on the sale or the dinner (advance tickets are on sale from members) contact Sharon Hutchins, 392-4351; Norma Plantier, 392-2411; or Sandy Delano at 392-1288. The hall will be available from noon to 6:00 for the event. A cleaning bee and painting spree is scheduled for Sept. 11 at the club house in East Andover, weather permitting. It was noted that the fall dance will be Oct. 22 at the town hall with Silver Wings band. Also, a set of keys will be made for the building for the rescue sled and kept at the fire station. It was thought that the availability of the rescue sled would be more accessible if the keys were in a central area.

The message at Calvary Congregational Church on Sunday, Sept. 4, was given by Randall Rickard entitled "Two Destinies". The choir sang "He Walked Beside Me". Special music, a solo by Randall Rickard, Randall Rickard and is returning to New Brunswick Bible Institute on Sept. 8. Things to come at Calvary Congregational Church are: a "Lomington Leadership Conference" on Sept. 15; a Fall Sunday School Symposium at Camp Berea in North Turner on Sept. 24 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.; a Fall four "C's" Conference in Pittston, on Oct. 15. Pastor Grover is looking for a bookcase for the church library. If anyone has one please call 392-1121.

er example of far too much discussion about people involved and far too little open discussion with all parties concerned to keep communication lines open and allow all sides of a question to be presented. This human characteristic is, I believe, a factor in much family and social dissension.

Pastor Larry Shaw planned to attend the annual business meeting but his father was ill and he felt more needed there. For the same reason he returned to Rumford after services rather than participate in the usual fellowship hour.

Safety Tip of the Week

Fall may be a difficult time for those asthmatic and emphysema patients. Remember if you are having difficulty getting a good breath of air for any reason, try to relax and slow down your breathing rate. Usually the sitting position is the most comfortable position to be in. Get someone else if possible to call for the ambulance. Oxygen is available on board, and it may not be safe to see the doctor by family car. The ambulance has people trained to handle all sorts of situations that may arise.

Walking With Jesus Christ

Ever have a beef knitter take a fancy notion to explore the world and see what it has to offer? Once in awhile there's one that a fence can't hold in and after tracking him over the mountains of Oxford County one finally needs to take drastic action along the sights of a 30-06—then butchering takes place before the beef is prime.

Puts one in mind of a wayward Christian referred to in the Bible as a lost sheep. Matt. 5:13 says—"Ye are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its savor, with what shall it be salted? It is thereafter good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men."

Harsh words—"good for nothing". The pathway of life is strewn with those who have fallen by the way-side—why? Because of disobedience to God—which in turn puts one on a collision course with the Devil.

We're to walk worthy of our calling, Ps. 107—"Oh, give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good; for his mercy endureth forever." If we walk our own way we become as the ships at sea—"waves are lifted up, they reel to and fro, and stagger as drunken men, and are put at their wits end. Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distress."

God's Word tells us how to bring up our family—Sunday School, to Church, having family devotions—putting God first in all

West Parish Congregational Church is starting its Sunday School year with a kick-off breakfast on Sunday, Sept. 11 at 8:30 a. m. A pancake breakfast will be served at no charge. All ages are invited in this intergenerational kick-off. Soar to new heights is the theme. Come prepared to use your imagination to make a kite worthy of flying on the Gould Soccer field. With a good wind, the kites will be a great sight to church-goers who wonder what Sunday School is doing this year.

Regular classes will begin on Sunday morning, Sept. 18 at 9:15 a. m. for all ages from nursery through adult. Come discover exciting new and old things this year at the West Parish Congregational Church Sunday School.

BETHEL HISTORICAL SOCIETY

President Bennett announced the Maine League would be meeting at the Moses Mason House on Saturday, Sept. 10, and anyone interested was cordially invited to attend by sending the registration information to Mrs. Maxine Scott, Box 479, Wilton, Maine 04294.

A field trip on Bird Hill, open to anyone interested, was announced for Sunday, Oct. 2, 9 a.m., to begin in front of the Locke Mills School. It will be conducted by Blaine Mills and if Sunday, Oct. 2, is rainy, the tour will be held the following week (Sunday, Oct. 9) same time, same meeting place.

The next meeting of the Society will be held on Oct. 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room and will feature the annual "What's It?"

Mr. Bennett outlined some of the highlights of the past year: a very successful Homecoming Day, Heritage Show, Art Show and Moses Mason Birthday Party and Sudbury Canada Days. He reported many donations to the museum and the Historical Society during the past year, a large growth in membership and good attendance at Society meetings and special events. The Society also received a number of grants during the year including one to fund a short story film series from the Maine

BEGINS 25th YEAR

Humanities Council. A grant was also received from the Maine State Commission on the Arts and Humanities to assist with the restoration and conservation work on two portraits (Alphonse and Roxanna Twitchell). The Society also obtained funding from the Senior Community Service Program to employ Mrs. Phyllis H. Roberts for 24 hours per week and a grant for $9,000 was approved by the Maine Historic Preservation Commission to publish a book on Oxford County Architecture. A small grant was also received to eventually establish a photographic darkroom in the Moses Mason Museum. An exhibit "Maine's Historic Houses: New Strategies for Survival" sponsored by Maine Citizens for Historic Preservation was featured in the meeting room during the summer.

Another highlight of the year was the establishment of an endowment campaign committee which has raised more money for the Regular Endowment than ever before in the Society's history. To date over 170 individuals and businesses have contributed with 46% of the goal realized.

And finally one of the most exciting highlights of the Society's past year according to President Bennett was the participation by the Society in the Maine Before Statehood Exhibit which features a panel on Bethel and focuses on Dr. Moses Mason one of the 10 representative men and women in Maine before 1820. The exhibit has been at the Dyer Institute, Saco, Bowdoin College, Brunswick, and is currently at the Bangor Historical Society. It will conclude at the Payson Gallery, Westbrook College in Portland, in December and January.

Following the business portion of the meeting, President Bennett thanked all those volunteers who served on committees, guided in the museum and performed many functions for the Society during the past year. He then introduced Director Stanley Howe who showed slides of old photographs taken during the past year and slides of Society activities for 1983. Included among the slides shown were several paintings of Bethel scenes that have come to light since the last annual meeting as well as many school photographs and views of buildings and landscapes. Following Dr. Howe's presentation, Vice President Alden Kennett showed a home movie of Indian Raid '81 made by members of his family during that memorable summer.

SPRIT WEEK SEPT. 9-17

Students at Telstar will have the opportunity to pull together by classes as Spirit Week begins, just two weeks into the school year. Senior class officers are furiously working to provide a variety of activities for the week. A rally is being planned for Friday, Sept. 9 to kick off the week's activities. There is a dance planned for the same evening.

Monday will find classes receiving points for wearing school colors blue and white. For each item worn a student can earn 5 points for his or her class.

Tuesday is pin day. Each pin a class member wears earns 10 points for the class.

Wednesday is only for pennies. Students bring in pennies for their classes treasury with the equal number of points being added to their classes running score. Remember "Penny Power" funds go to the classes treasury.

Thursday will be "Hat Day." Five points for every class member will be given. In addition there will be 400 extra points given for the following categories: 1. Rebel Power; 2. Funniest; 3. longest; 4. Most Original.

Friday is Class Day—Each class member should wear: Polka Dots for Freshmen; Plaids for Sophomores; Stripes for Juniors; and Flowers for Seniors. Five points for each item will be tacked onto class scores. Friday evening will find the demolition of a spirit car at 25 cents a hit, a bonfire and a Greaser dance.

Saturday's activities include competition of all athletic teams, possibility of a dunking machine, a decorated cake contest and the worst sneaker competition.

The entire community is asked to take part in the decorated cake contest and the sneaker competition, along with the spirit car demolition. Interested competitors

JACKSON-SILVER POST & UNIT HELD MEETINGS SEPT. 1

There was a large turnout for the Sept. 1 meetings of Jackson-Silver Post and Unit #68 in Locke Mills. To be exact, 27 adults and nine juveniles.

Special guest of the evening was Department President Jeri Brooks of Bethel who gave a very informative talk at the ladies' meeting, that was opened with prayers and the singing of "God Bless America", led by Mary Lyon. President Cathryn Lovejoy named her committees, in part, for the new year. Finance Officer Vera Cross gave a good report on the Friday night luncheon at the game parties, in charge of Grace Smith. She needs some help badly in making sandwiches. Volunteers can phone her at 875-3340.

Music Chairman Mary Lyon announced her program for music month to be held at the Sept. 15 meeting at 7 p. m. Dept. President Jeri Brooks of Bethel and State Music Chairman Jeanne Watson of Bethel will be special guests.

The program will be "Songs of Our War" from the Revolution to the Vietnam War, with Ruth Mason, the narrator.

Comrades Herb Lyon and Andy Bartlett and helpers are progressing well on the redecorating of the ladies' meeting room. Warren Smith has painted the outside of the big hall—a long job from a ladder, and it looks great.

Three new members were voted into the Auxiliary, Ruth Mason, Fern Merrill and Cynthia Cox. A drive is underway to be 100% by the 15th, in both the Unit and the Post.

The "Christmas in October Craft Fair" was reported on by Chairman Kathy Bartlett. Get you call in for a table early as the cut-off date is Oct. 6. Numbers to call are 875-2475, 875-5578 or 896-2822.

Preceding the meetings the members and families had their cook-out. What a lot of goodies, plus a surprise birthday cake, made by Sally Smith and presented to Comrade Herb Lyon by his wife, Mary, and there was ice cream for all.

P.D.C. John Howe of Ellsworth and his daughter, Olive Risko, of New York were present and spoke briefly.

All members reported were William Roberts and Florence York, who is in St. Mary's Hospital, Lewiston.

Don't miss the special program Sept. 15, Commander Charles Mason says the regular dances begin in October with three different bands playing. Watch for newspaper ads.

GUIDANCE NEWS

The Guidance Department's Parent Nights for September and early October have been scheduled as follows: Freshmen—Sept. 13, 7 p. m., Telstar Library; Sophomores—Sept. 19, 7 p. m., Telstar Library; Juniors—Sept. 28, 7 p. m., Telstar Library; Seniors, Oct. 6, 7 p. m., Telstar Library.

These nights have been designed to provide parents with an opportunity to learn what guidance services they can expect for their child throughout the school year. We hope that many of you will plan to join us. There will be plenty of cider and doughnuts for everyone.

Telstar seniors who are planning to attend college after graduation may take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or Achievement Tests (ACT) on Nov. 5, 1983. Students must register by Sept. 30 for this exam or pay a penalty fee of $10. Nearest testing centers for Telstar students are Golder Academy and Rumford High School.

Students should pick up application forms in the Guidance Office. Most colleges require, or at least prefer, that seniors take the SAT in November or December and the Achievement Tests in December or January. Colleges generally like to have Senior SAT scores as soon as possible; thus, unless a college specifically requires a later date most seniors should plan to take the November SAT. Other College Board test dates are as follows: Dec. 3, Jan. 28, April 7, May 5, and June 2. The cost of the SAT is $11 and the ACT's are $17.50.

A very pleasant week has passed and we were blessed with a few drops of rain and were glad to get it, but more was really needed. The hall had been rebuilt after the former hall had burned. Lila and Irwin lived in North Paris for many years before moving to their present home in West Paris.

The hall was prettily decorated with streamers and white wedding bells and many bouquets. The wedding cake was very pretty with fresh sweet peas for a topping. Everything was grand. A nice evening of sociability for all. Their three children and many grandchildren were present.

Swan's Corner

Sent in by Viva Whitman:

The week started out to be a busy one for Russell, Peggy and I. Even though the weather didn't look too good on Monday, Russell decided to pick corn and get it done, so that's what we did. I don't know about anyone else this year, but our corn has had a lot of ear worms in it. I'm glad to see the last of it because of that and besides, it will taste good in chowders or any way we decide to use it. It is quite a job to husk it, cook it, cut it from the cobs and then put it into bags to freeze, but well worth it when needed for the table.

After lunch, Peggy headed for Lewiston and an appointment with her eye doctor as one eye has been bothering her some. He didn't find what was wrong so sent her to another doctor who sent her to have an x-ray. He was to let her know what the x-ray showed, but so far hasn't contacted her at all. That's what happens lots of times, I've found, so you fret and worry wondering what is wrong but don't find out as told you would.

As we were planning to have a barn and yard sale on Saturday, Russell got busy putting up shelves etc. in the barn to display things on. I was kind of under the weather, so wasn't much help to him that day.

Wednesday and appointments at Fryeburg fairly early in the forenoon, so headed out quite early. Got home about lunch time and after lunch, I played lazy again. Just didn't have the get up and go I needed, but Thursday was better. Wednesday afternoon, Peggy had a garage appointment and Russell worked in the barn some more.

Of course string beans needed picking again Thursday, so after Russell got them picked, Peggy helped me get them ready to can and I did the rest while Russell worked in the barn and sorted over things for the upcoming sale. That is no easy job. It is so hard to part company with items you have had for years, but it becomes necessary at times.

I went over a lot of my things and still have more to look over as does Russell, but got things pretty well ready Friday. Peggy had to go to Norway Friday afternoon for an appointment and in the evening, we tried to make sure all our items were marked. Laura Hutchins from East Andover came with some things for the yard sale.

We turned out early on Saturday to put up signs and lay items on the tables in the yard. The weather was sunny and hot and had lots of folks come to see what we had. Got rid of a lot of items and

The Brown reunion was held at Litchfield, Sunday, Aug. 28, with around 40 attending. The occasion also was held to honor Donald and Hazel Hines Brown from Lavenmore on their 40th wedding anniversary. The day was spent socializing, bathing and boating on the lake nearby. Esther Davis attended the reunion also Patsy and Jackie Tibbetts of Oxford, Donald is Esther's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brooks and Olive Davis were in Gray Monday afternoon.

The summer is dodging right along. The gardens are on their last legs. I've made hot dog relish enough for the whole nation I guess. I should put it up for sale. School started in full swing last week. It is a bit early but with want to thank all, who came. We figured we had a pretty good day.

After the sale was over I went home with my daughter Wynona Woolf of Lewiston, who had come during the afternoon. She and husband, Michael, along with some friends, were going to Boston on Sunday to see the Red Sox ball game, so I went down to stay with my granddaughter, Courtney. Had a friend come to visit while there which was good. I really enjoyed the day taking care of Courtney. I don't get to see her as often as I would like and babies have a way of growing so fast one can't keep up with them.

Russell told me that Peggy's daughter Myrna and husband Bernard White of Auburn came to call Sunday afternoon. They visited with Peggy for a nice length of time. It was a beautiful day for going places, but guess from what my daughter said, there was a lot of traffic on the roads. However, they were fortunate in having a good trip to Boston and home again and enjoyed watching the Red Sox win the game. I had just as much fun staying with my granddaughter, so it was a good day for all of us.

Russell had a caller on Sunday also. Verna Swan from Bryant Pond stopped in for a short visit. Sorry I missed her.

Don't know how much Jim Swan has got done on his new home up on the hill back of us, but we our winters it is a good idea. This can allow for days lost by bad storms.

The Hunds have started mowing the place where they pasture their horses. This year the bushes grow like mad because of wet weather I presume, and the field had a lot of them started up all over it. I am glad to see them clearing the field.

Wednesday morning, Aug. 31, we arose with the rain pelting down. We hadn't had any for a long time and the ground really soaked it up.

Mrs. Lettie Brooks held a hobo party at her farm recently. The ladies dressed in old clothes and carried their lunch in a bag on a stick for refreshments. They had a hilarious time.

Richard Fell, Dot Canwell and Elden Hathaway played at the Trappers' gathering at the Olsons', East Bethel, Aug. 27.

here a lot of hammering and hope he is making great progress. I love to see Marilyn go riding up through on her bike with the baby in a seat behind her. The sun really shines on his red hair and he seems to be enjoying every minute of his ride. He certainly is a cute youngster and growing every day. Babies grow so fast, one can't believe they are as old as they are. It just doesn't seem possible Bion will soon be a year old.

School buses are now on the roads and drivers must look out for the children going to school. Where has the summer gone? Time doesn't wait for anyone and the leaves will soon be turning to their beautiful colors. It is one of my favorite times of the year. The only bad thing about it that we all know what comes next and I don't like the cold weather as I once did. A sure sign I'm getting old.

SIXTH GRADERS HOLD TOAD CONTEST AT ANDOVER ELEMENTARY

Cathy Cronin's entry won the First Annual Andover Elementary School Toad Contest. The first place toad weighed 67½ grams, narrowly edging out the toad caught by Nathan Miserochich which weighed 67 grams. Vicki Hutchins' toad came in third at 20 grams.

The sixth grade students of Roger Sabin weighed their toads using a centigram balance. The toads are being kept in a terrarium in Mr. Sabin's room where the sixth graders will study their habits.

The toads will be weighed each month and the students will record the changes in weight and display the data on a graph. The class will be using the library to research more information on toads and other amphibians.

MOTORISTS REMINDED OF SCHOOL BUS LAWS

With the new school year under way, the Maine State Police remind motorists of the laws regarding school buses.

"In addition to following the school bus law, motorists are advised to be particularly careful during morning 'going-to-work' traffic as children walk to school and buses stop to pick up children," said Colonel Allan H. Weeks, chief of the Maine State Police.

Col. Weeks also advises parents to have their children not play or run around at bus pick-up areas while waiting for or when getting off a bus.

According to the State Police, on undivided highways and roads, all vehicles must stop until children are clear of the roadway and the bus is moving. Specifically, an operator when coming upon a school bus which has stopped to receive or discharge children, shall stop such vehicle before reaching the school bus and shall not proceed until the school bus resumes motion or until signalled by the school bus driver to proceed.

On divided highways, Maine law says all vehicles traveling with the school bus must stop. Vehicles traveling in the opposite direction, but separated by curbing or other similar physical barrier or an unpaved area need not stop.

was the need to arrive at a consensus of opinion whether the Town should have a "full-service" police department, contract for police coverage from an outside source, or resort to an "on call" area constable system. A decision on police policy was postponed until the Board can examine additional data.

After the Manager presented an overview of changing the Town's accounting year from Jan. 1-Dec. 31 to July 1-June 30 and adopting semi-annual tax billing, the Board voted to recommend acceptance at a special Town Meeting to be scheduled for later this fall. Public information sessions will also be scheduled to describe how these steps can significantly reduce the Town's need and cost of borrowing money ($28,810.47 in 1982) to operate in anticipation of taxes, ease the Town's cash flow problems, enhance information and decision making at Town Meeting, and offer more payment convenience and flexibility to taxpayers.

Washington Watch

by Olympia J. Snowe
Member of Congress
2nd District, Maine

Two recent grants by the Economic Development Administration to communities in the 2nd District have reinforced my argument that the EDA can play a vital role in creating new jobs for Maine.

Although the administration wanted to halt funding for EDA programs this year, I joined with many of my colleagues in opposing the elimination of funding, especially at a time when the nation was suffering from high unemployment.

Congress has continued funding and the agency has been given a special responsibility under the Emergency Jobs Program to channel funds to areas of the country suffering from high unemployment to create temporary and permanent jobs.

Maine was one of the first states in the nation to get a portion of the EDA jobs money. The town of Farmington will receive $389,500 in EDA funds to construct 2.7 miles of sewer line along Route 2. The sewer line construction project will create at least 30 jobs and some of those jobs must be filled from the ranks of the unemployed.

The sewer line will service a rapidly growing and heavily commercial area near Farmington and

TELSTAR TAKES OPENING FIELD HOCKEY GAME

The Rebel field hockey squad battled against an aggressive St. Donny team and came home the victor Friday. Playing on a fast field in 87° temperature the Rebels found a new meaning for endurance.

The first 30 minutes found the Saints coming up with the ball, but not being able to find the net. It was anyone's game at half time. Coming out stronger in the second half, Rebel Sally Thompson found the mark twice. The first came 9 minutes into the period and the second 20 minutes later. Assistants went to Chris Davis and Vicki Dyer, even though the entire team could be given credit for the tally. There were other chances to score (12) but the Rebels found themselves wide by inches. Goalie Jodie Seidel had six saves for the team, while Denise Theriault had seven for St. Doms.

Six seniors started their final fall season together: Cindy Boyle, Jodie Seidel, Sally Thompson, Chris Davis, Gerri Gauthier and Georgia Gould.

The team would like to thank Burt and Carol Hathaway and Ray Moran for their part in providing the team with pre-season activities.

also will service an industrial park. It will also help solve a potential health hazard of seepage from private septic tanks in the area.

A second EDA grant has been approved for Bingham in Somerset County. In that community, which has an unemployment rate nearing 20%, the funds will be used to renovate the former Allen Quimby Veneer Mill to accommodate some new, smaller businesses. At least four firms have expressed an interest in locating in the mill property. Industrial development officials believe the EDA funds could eventually result in 150 new jobs.

Without this kind of federal assistance, our towns and communities would probably be unable to undertake the various kinds of improvements that directly or indirectly make their areas attractive for new industries or for existing industries to expand.

PROTECT YOURSELF AND YOUR PETS FROM RABIES

Since the first of the year, nine cases of rabies in Maine have been confirmed by the State Public Health Laboratory. Seven of these cases involved foxes and one, a bat. Four of the foxes and the bat had been in contact with dogs, two of the foxes had been in contact with cats, one fox had been in contact with humans, and one was found around cattle.

Rabies occurs primarily in foxes, but also in skunks, bats, raccoons and coyotes. Infected wild animals are responsible for cases of the disease in not only domestic pets but also in livestock, such as cattle, horses, sheep and goats. Because of the danger to livestock and humans from this almost always fatal disease, the Maine Department of Agriculture's veterinary staff gives the following reminders:

—You do not have to be actually bitten by a rabid animal to contract the disease, which affects the brain and nervous system. A cut or scratch that comes into contact with saliva or other body fluid of an infected animal can be the point of entry.

—Dogs and cats are the most likely sources of rabies infection in humans and, therefore, it is extremely important to have your pets vaccinated. In fact, Maine law mandates that in order to license dogs, they must be vaccinated every two years.

In areas where rabies is known to be present in wild animals, pets should be inoculated every year.

—Be extra wary of wild animals that appear friendly or unalarmed by the presence of humans and report such abnormally behaving animals to game wardens or the police.

—Young children should be warned of trying to befriend or feed wild animals.

MAINE WOODCOCK SEASON OPEN OCTOBER 1

The hunting season on woodcock in Maine will open on Oct. 1 this fall, to coincide with the opening of the grouse and pheasant seasons.

Season dates and bag limits for woodcock, sea ducks, and several other species of migratory game birds were set recently by Fish and Wildlife Commissioner Glenn Manuel and his advisory council, following a public hearing.

The season on rails and gallinules will run from Sept. 1 to Nov. 9. The snipe season will be Sept. 1 to Dec. 16.

Opening Oct. 1 will be the woodcock and special sea duck seasons. Woodcock hunting ends Nov. 30, sea ducks Jan. 15.

Daily bag limit will be five woodcock, eight snipe, 25 rails, 15 gallinules, and seven sea ducks.

POCKET WATCH Your Legal Rights as Maine Consumers

by Jim Tierney
Maine Attorney General

Everyday our consumer affairs specialists mediate consumer complaints from around the state. Here are some actual cases, with minor changes to preserve privacy, that I think will be instructive to you.

Jane of Southern Maine bought an "attack" dog from a dog kennel further up the Maine coast. The kennel gave Joan specific warranties that the dog would protect her. This was important as Joan had been burglarized many times. The "attack" dog cost $1,250. Later, to her despair, Joan found her new dog had severe arthritis and offered insufficient protection.

Attorney General Mediator Jim Levy persuaded the kennel to return all of Joan's money. It was a breach of Joan's express warranty to sell a dog that was not, in effect, an effective "attack" dog. A breach of warranty is a broken contract and Jane had the right to obtain the return of her money.

Harold of Central Maine ordered a washing machine from a local dealer. It proved continually defective. Four times the dealer sent a repairman. Still it was not fixed and the motor was discovered to be rusting out. Must Harold suffer in silence?

In Maine, consumer items always come with an implied warranty (guarantee) the item will perform as it is designed to. That is, a saw will saw, a freezer will freeze, and a washer will wash. This machine clearly violated the Maine implied warranty of merchantability. Harold must give the merchant a chance to repair, but if repairs are not successful, he can demand his money back or a new item. Attorney General Mediator Joan Wells persuaded the dealer to give Harold a new washing machine.

If you have a consumer complaint and need help or advice, call or write the Attorney General's Consumer and Antitrust Division at 289-3716. Leave your name on our recorder and a mediator will contact you. We receive a great number of inquiries and it has been taking a week or longer to return calls. If you like, you can order "Pocket Watch", our comprehensive 232-page Consumer Law Manual for $9.95. Send your check or money order to Consumer and Antitrust, Department of The Attorney General, Station 6, State House, Augusta, Maine 04333.
